

I am...

I am a silvery stream,
bubbling over multi-
coloured stone.

My complexion and
odour turn foul,
when polluted with dung
and bone.

Encouragement to be
me, and to flow free,
To join others, and
to be not left alone,

mean a life-giving sea
become I,

As I make my daunting
way home.
